The island of David Copperfield, Musha Cay, is world famous; not only for its extraordinary luxurious look and feel, but also because it has been the setting of numerous celebrity holidays and events. Stars such as Oprah Winfrey and John Travolta relaxed in one of the five guest houses in between filming, and Google co-founder Sergey Brin even said 'I will' on these sandy beaches.

Heading East

While Musha Cay is already a renowned holiday destination for the rich and famous of the West, owner David Copperfield also wishes to promote his unique island property to the stars of the East. Therefore, he joined forces with German broker Vladi Private Islands and a specialized Luxembourg intermediary, PROPERTY4EAST.com. Through its website and targeted mailings, PROPERTY4EAST.com offers the Copperfield island to a selection of real estate investors from Russia, Eastern Europe and the Middle East. The price for a day of bliss on Musha Cay has not been announced.
