PROPERTY4EAST.com Counters Impressive Take-Over Bid With Geographical Expansion

08.20.10, 05:05 AM EDT

LUXEMBOURG, August 20, 2010

/PRNewswire/ --

PROPERTY4EAST, the international real estate network offering luxurious properties to investors in Russia, Eastern Europe and the Middle East, recently received a "very interesting take-over bid" from an investment company. PROPERTY4EAST further plans to expand its offer in Europe and develop an exclusive hotel range for its customers.

Success leads to impressive take-over bid

Recently, the successful progression of PROPERTY4EAST.com led to a very high offer from an Eastern European investment company in the media sector. Notwithstanding the impressive sum on the table, the shareholders have decided not to sell.

Thierry Kohnen of Kohnen &

Associés Luxembourg, who represents the shareholders, explains: "The offer, which consisted of a majority shareholding, was very interesting to say the least. However, the shareholders have decided not to accept it, as it could jeopardize the growth of the company. Moreover, we are passionate about what we do, which is why we are not ready to sell and certainly not if this means we would lose the controlling interest."

Focus on Europe

PROPERTY4EAST.com will now increasingly focus on Europe, said Naomi El Haimer, PR responsible for the Middle East. "In key countries such as Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy and the Benelux, we will contact promising real estate agents personally and start handpicking them to form a highgrade network that matches the standards of our clientele. However, please note that all other markets will continue to enjoy our undiminished attention."
