Welcome to NISADE Real Estate - Niseko's Premium Real Estate and Development Agency

Printer-friendly version

Experience and tenacity produces results which is why NISADE is the real estate agent buyers keep coming back to for the small to the large acquisition and sales. Operating in Niseko since 2005 the team covers the full spectrum of real estate, NISADE is the specialist real estate agency. Instrumental in the long term planning and development of Niseko the company has first hand experience developing and selling property, experience that gives us the knowledge to understand and appreciate the motivations of investing in real estate in Japan.

Situated in Asia's #1 year round international ski resort, NISADE provides Niseko's most exclusive luxury real estate products from ski in ski out apartments to ultra lux ski chalets, hotels rooms and condominiums.

Catering to individuals rather than addressing a market, services includes start with Property Sales and run through every component including development, accomodation services and asset management. NISADE's established track record is built on innovation and a highly qualified team of property professionals.

Our mission is to ensure property investment in Niseko is transparent, easy and ultimately satisfying both economically and in lifestyle goals.

Jonathan Martin with extensive experience both in Australia and Japan is backed by Craig Meikle, a Japan veteran of 20 years and a Niseko local for 10 plus years. Our offering to the market is across the full spectrum - high end homes, condominiums, commercial property, townhouses, land and large scale development sites. With over USD100m in sales in the last three years the team knows the market both for buyers and for sellers. With expansion and partnering with international firms such as Sotheby's Tokyo, Property 4 East in Brussels and numerous agencies thru Hong Kong and Singapore we get results.

Our goal is more than selling property. It is to build trust, develop strong relationships and continue to build on our reputation of excellence.

Niseko is known as a mountain powder paradise, a four season playground and a world-class resort destination, but to us, it's simply home.

“NISADE Real Estate your satisfaction is our satisfaction”
